Goosecross Napa Valley Viognier Vintage 2004

Viognier may be the world's least widely planted premium grape – but currently one of the most prized. Once in the glass, a well-made Viognier comes with a soft, yellow color and an exquisite, exotic bouquet - apricots, pears, tropical fruits.

We are proud to present Goosecross Cellars' third Napa Valley "Estate" Viognier. To ensure the finest quality, our Viognier grapes were hand picked from a 4.3 acre vineyard in what is now the “Oak Knoll District of Napa Valley”. The clusters were hand-sorted and gently pressed to coax out the finest flavors this complex wine grape can offer. No oak was used in the production of this Viognier.

Winemaker Notes

Refreshing and lovely, our Viognier has fragrant peach and floral overtones on the nose with an impressive array of exotic fruits. Silky pear, melon, pineapple, apricot, and lemon round out the middle and blend softly into a long expansive finish. Perfectly balanced with lively fruit and low acidity. Tired of Chardonnay? Try this excellent alternative!

Food Suggestions

Our Winemaker suggests matching this Viognier with creamy sauces, fresh seafood, soup & salad, spicy Thai cuisine, pork or chicken dishes, quiches, medium to strong cheeses, and fresh fruit.
